Dear Aimee,

Thank you for providing a copy of my severance agreement — I appreciate your help.

As a follow-up, I want to confirm that I have issued a litigation hold and preservation notice to Goldman Sachs via the investor relations email address, as I am currently a named party in an active tort matter in Connecticut involving events connected to my employment and subsequent contact with Goldman Sachs.

To ensure clarity and prevent any inadvertent loss of relevant documents, I've attached a copy of the notice here as well. I also mailed a hard copy to the Legal Department via certified mail with delivery confirmation.

I will follow up with any formal discovery requests as appropriate, but I wanted to make sure you were aware of this step given your assistance thus far.

Also, I'd like to request that my preferred personal email address — priya.marie.ross@gmail.com — be unblocked so that I may use it for ongoing communication. I'm currently relying on a temporary work address that I do not control, and it's important to ensure our correspondence remains accessible and consistent throughout this matter.

Thank you again for your time.

Best regards,

/s/ Priyamol (Priya) Ross

Hi Priya, I understand you were looking for a copy of your severance agreement. Please see attached.

Sincerely,

Aime Hendricks
